

TRANSITION TO COLLEGE: A PROGRAM FOR SUCCESS

Lewis & Clark Community College
Godfrey, Illinois

Emily DeGrand, Roselyn Ellington, and Jill Lorschach

October 2019

LEWIS AND CLARK'S MISSION STATEMENT:

“Empowering people by raising aspirations and fostering achievements through dynamic, compassionate and responsible learning experiences.”

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Through the advocacy and efforts of several faculty members and counselors, students, parents and administrators, Lewis & Clark Community College began serving students with intellectual and developmental disabilities in 1991.

THREE PRIMARY PROGRAMS COORDINATED
THROUGH OUR STUDENT DEVELOPMENT OFFICE:

- College for Life
- Supported College Transition
- Student Accessibility Services

Our Goal: To help students successfully transition from high school to college

COLLEGE FOR LIFE

College for Life Courses are

- Continuing education and not state/federal financial aid grant eligible.
- Student interest driven.
- Flexible with course requirements and learning outcomes.
- Designed to be repeatable and challenging.
- Other than the classes, the students are fully included in all campus events, activities, resources, etc., in the exact same way all credit-bearing students are.

2 Campuses, M/W or T/TH, 9:00-3:00pm, $475 minimum
